

Cardiff School of Optometry & Vision Sciences

Maindy Road, Cathays, Cardiff , CF24 4HQ

There is no general parking available on site. Limited disabled parking is available.

Blue Badge holders should contact Angela Burgess to request a space.

Email: burgessam@cf.ac.uk, Tel: 029 2074 6940

Inherited Eye Disease Patient Day

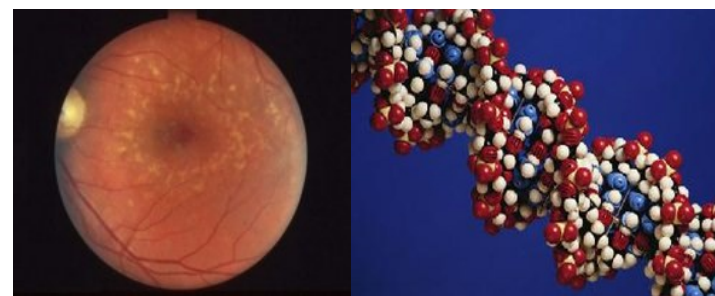

Friday 8th January 2016

[09:30am – 2:30pm]

Cardiff School of Optometry & Vision Sciences

Main Lecture Theatre

Organised by Prof Marcela Vortuba,
Hon. Consultant Ophthalmologist in collaboration with Genetic Alliance UK & the Wales Gene Park

I would like to attend the Inherited Eye Disease Patient Day on Friday 8th January 2016

Name:

Address:

.....

.....

Email:

Tel:

My condition is (optional) :

Dietary requirements:

As places are limited you will only be able to bring one person with you

Name of accompanying person:

Should more places become available would you like us to contact you to offer you an extra place? YES / NO (Please delete as appropriate)

Please return this form to :

The Wales Gene Park,
Institute of Medical Genetics, Heath Park, Cardiff CF14 4XN

Inherited Eye Disease Patient Day

Friday 8th January 2016

Programme

9.30 - 10.00 Registration & Refreshments

- 10.00 - 10.05 Introduction
- 10.05 - 10.20 Assessing children with visual impairment
- 10.20 - 10.35 Childrens' eye services and specialist teachers
- 10.35 - 10.50 Progress with the Welsh Rare Disease Plan
- 10.50 - 11.30 Questions & Discussion

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee / Tea / Networking/ Information stands

- 11.30 - 11.45 A patient's perspective
- 11.45- 12.00 Access to work and disability rights
- 12.00 - 12.15 Low Vision Services: What is available?

12.30 - 1.30 Lunch / Networking/ Information stands

- 12.15 - 12.30 Genetic Counselling Services
- 1.30—1.45 Research Setting Priority Partnership
- 1.45—2.00 Curing blindness with research
- 2.00—2.15 Bionic Glasses
- 2.15—2.25 Questions & Discussion
- 2.25—2.30 Conclusion & Next steps