

SWAN UK VIRTUAL INFORMATION EVENT

Wednesday 21 April, 10:00 – 14:30

10:00	Welcome - Lauren Roberts, National Coordinator, SWAN UK
10:05	About SWAN UK - Louise James, Chair of SWAN UK Council - Izzy Rundle, Engagement and Support Officer, Genetic Alliance UK
10:15	Family story
10:25	So, what's a genome? - Professor Matthew Hurles, Deciphering Developmental Disorders project
10:40	History of genetic testing - Dr Sian Morgan, Head of Laboratory, All Wales Medical Genomics Service
10:55	Family story
11:05	Questions
11:15	Break
11:25	Why does genetic testing take so long? - Professor Jill Clayton-Smith, The University of Manchester
11:40	Family story
11:50	Panel discussion: Will any conditions still be undiagnosed in 10 years' time? - Christine Patch, Clinical Lead for Genetic Counselling, Genomics England - Professor Jill Clayton-Smith, The University of Manchester - Dr Andrew Fry, Clinical Geneticist, AWMGS/Director of Wales Gene Park - Professor Matthew Hurles, Deciphering Developmental Disorders project
12:20	Lunch
13:30	Country-specific breakout rooms
14:30	END

